

FLAYS SMOOT IN A SPEECH

Takes Mormons And Mormonism Into Count
And Is Bitter In His Denunciation.

SMOOT HIMSELF IS NOT THE TARGET

His Religion Is Assailed In Every Possible Manner—Hansbrough Is No Mincer Of Words In His Speech Today.

WASHINGTON, FEB. 20.—4:05—SENATOR SMOOT RETAINS SEAT.
THE COMMITTEE RESOLUTION UNSEAT HIM, WAS DEFEATED BY TWO-THIRDS MAJORITY.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE]
Washington, D. C., Feb. 20.—Senator Hansbrough, of North Dakota, supported the resolution depriving Mr. Smoot of his seat in a brief speech in which he denounced Mormonism with vigor. He said:

"I shall cast my vote in favor of the resolution now pending. Were I fail to do otherwise I would feel that I had condoned every offense ever committed against good morals and the written laws of the country, by the Mormon church. Not the least among the long list of those offenses was the sending to this high legislative tribunal of one of the active apostles of the Mormon organization.

"These words are not uttered in hostility to or out of any lack of respect to Reed Smoot. They are spoken to give expression to the views I hold in regard to Mormonism based upon the public record it has made for itself. In sending its apostle here the Mormon managers, always aggressive in advancing the political interests of their leaders, furnished us with another sample of brazen effrontery in further defying the public sentiment of the country relative to the obnoxious institution for which they are responsible. Having entrenched itself in political power in many states and territories, Mormonism comes here seeking a clean bill of health in the form of an endorsement of all its flagrant misdeeds. The defeat of this resolution would be tantamount to putting the seal of official approval upon a conspiracy conceived, as I believe, in treasonable antagonism to our republican institutions.

"There is not a city or village or hamlet in any section of the United States where Mormonism is not in control of local affairs, that does not welcome to its circle of institutions of moral advancement the coming of a new church society or organization representative of any or all of the existing creeds of religious faith save that of the Mormon church. A proposal to establish a society of this creed in my own state, where Mormonism has not yet reared its head, would evoke a storm of protest. So it would, I confidently believe, in any other section of the country where the institution is not in political control. It would be time enough for this lawgiving body to embrace in its membership the apostolic representative of Mormonism when that organization, duly renovated and reformed, no longer a menace to civilization, is worthy of admission in full fellowship with other organizations against whose history, tenets and practices the moral sentiment of the land is not in revolt."

The final vote on the resolution declaring Smoot not entitled to a seat in the senate was taken at four this afternoon. Senator Dubois of Idaho spoke in opposition to Senator Smoot and Senator Beveridge followed with a plea for his retention.

TWENTY-FIVE THOUSAND IS THE AMOUNT APPROPRIATED

Wisconsin Will Expend This Sum At The Jamestown Exposition This Year.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE]
Madison, Wis., Feb. 20.—A bill to appropriate $25,000 for a Wisconsin exhibit at the Jamestown exposition passed the senate this morning under a suspension of the rules. The original bill called for $50,000. Senators Munson, Rummel, Page, Wolff, Wright and Noble voted against the bill, but 22 senators favored it. Governor Davidson is said to be against the proposition on the ground that instead of advertising Wisconsin in Virginia it would tend to attract the Wisconsin farmers to the cheap lands of the south. An amendment was adopted to spend $1,000 to send a company of the Wisconsin National Guard to the military part of the exposition. The assembly passed the bill affecting the grading and inspection of grain and had wrangle on whether or not to meet earlier in the morning than the present hour of 10 o'clock.

SOCIETY HOTEL OF NOTE IS A FAILURE

One Time Remunerative Hostelry
Sold at Auction to Satisfy
Mortgages and Debts.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE]

Nantucket, Mass., Feb. 20.—Burdened with mortgages and other indebtedness amounting to nearly $200,000, the famous Sea Cliff Inn, Nantucket's largest and finest summer hotel, was put up for sale at auction today by order of the court. The hostelry, which frequently has been styled "the society hotel of New England," has been enabled to hide itself from the penetrating public gaze. The law-abiding people of the land have not been deceived. From Nauvoo to the endowment house at Salt Lake, from the place of plural marriages to the tithe paying colony, from the colony to the ballot box and the ballot box to the United States senate an indulgent public has looked steadily on in prayerful hopefulness that the time would surely come when the strange and devious course of Mormonism, ever defiant of popular opinion, stimulated with the lust of possession and power, would receive a check. That time has come, and no more fitting place could be chosen than in this chamber of impartial judgment for the rendering of the long delayed verdict.

The final vote on the resolution declaring Smoot not entitled to a seat in the senate was taken at four this afternoon. Senator Dubois of Idaho spoke in opposition to Senator Smoot and Senator Beveridge followed with a plea for his retention.

Seventy-sixth Birthday of Catholic
Prelate Passed Without Usual Observance.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE]

Philadelphia, Pa., Feb. 20.—Today was the seventy-sixth birthday of Archbishop Ryan, the venerable head of the Roman Catholic archdiocese of Philadelphia. At his special request, the anniversary was allowed to pass without special celebration of any kind, the only observance being a low mass of thanksgiving celebrated in the cathedral this morning. Archbishop Ryan was born in Ireland in 1831 and succeeded the late Archbishop Wood of this city in 1884. He is the oldest member of the American hierarchy with the single exception of Archbishop Williams of Boston, who will be eighty-five years old in April.

POSTOFFICE BILL IS BEFORE CONGRESS

Consideration of the Postoffice Measure Is Taken Up This Morning.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS]

Washington, D. C., Feb. 20.—The house today resumed the consideration of the postoffice appropriation bill. The amendment increasing by 20 per cent the salaries of all the clerks employed in the postoffices in the first and second class offices went out on a point of order. The President today signed the immigration measure.

PRINCESS ROYAL IS WELL ON BIRTHDAY

Duchess of Fife Has Nearly Regained
Health and Enjoyed Celebrating Fortieth Anniversary.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE]

London, Feb. 20.—The bells of the Curfew Tower and of Windsor parish church pealed merrily today in celebration of the fortieth birthday of the Princess Royal (the Duchess of Fife), who was born Feb. 20, 1867. The anniversary was further observed by the firing of a salute in the Long Walk. The Princess Royal has about recovered her health after a long and serious illness. Last September she underwent an operation as an outcome of severe complications following a chill. Her convalescence has been very slow, though of late her progress has been more satisfactory. The Duke of Fife married Princess Louise, eldest daughter of the then Prince of Wales, in 1889. Two daughters have been born of the marriage: Alexandra Victoria Alberta, who is now sixteen years old, and Maud Alexandra Victoria, who is two years younger. No heir has been born, and in order to guard against the extinction of the title the Duke had new letters patent for his nobility granted by the crown, under which in the event of their being no male heir, the title shall pass first to the eldest daughter and to her heirs male, and in the event of the succession failing in that branch of the family, then her sister would be Duchess of Fife, with right to her male heirs.

PULLMAN COMPANY
FIGHTS REDUCTION

Claiming Not to be a Common Carrier
Sleeper Corporation Objects to Texas Regulations.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE]

Dallas, Texas, Feb. 20.—In the federal court here today arguments were presented in the matter of the temporary injunction secured by the Pullman company restraining the enforcement of the order of the Texas Railroad Commission relative to the reduction of rates on Pullman cars. The railroad commission's order, which was to have become effective Feb. 1, called for a reduction on sleeping car rates from $2 to $1 for upper and $1.50 for lower berths. The Pullman company, in contesting the order, pleads that it is not a common carrier and hence does not come within the jurisdiction of the state railroad commission. The company further pleads that the commission's order is contrary to the federal constitution, which says that "no state shall pass any bill or law that shall impair the obligation of contracts," that these contracts were in full force when the commission issued its orders, that 80 per cent of the railroads of the country are using the Pullman service and that the charges are universal.

TO COMPLETE SHORT LINE TO NORTHWEST

St. Paul Company to Build from Milton Jct. to Watertown Jct.; "Pioneer Limited" Via Janesville.

Dispatches from Fort Atkinson state that the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway company is contemplating the completion of their short line from Chicago to St. Paul. The building of the "Janesville" & Southeastern branch cut off many miles and a shortening of thirty more could be effected by the extension of their line from Milton Junction to Watertown Junction. Over such a route the St. Paul company's fast trains between the Windy City and the Twin Cities could make better time than via Milwaukee and the result would be that the Pioneer Limited and many other trains would come via Janesville.

JEROME IS NOT TO SPARE EVELYN THAW'S FEELINGS

Starts In On Attempt To Mix Up The Plucky
Wife Of Harry Thaw This Morning.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS]

New York, Feb. 20.—Justice Fitzgerald received a letter yesterday from St. Louis threatening to kill Mrs. Thaw if she met soon after coming to New York. Nothing developed from the examination, however. The cross-examination was extremely dull at times. Jerome said during the morning he would like to have Mr. Holman's testimony. "But you know where she is," he said as he turned to Delmas, who raised an objection.

Mrs. Thaw resumed the stand after the recess. Jerome assisted materially in the cross-examination of the witness by statements made to him by her mother and brother. Mr. Delmas objected only to Jerome's reading from Mrs. Holman's statement saying if her testimony was desired she would be brought forward as a witness. Checks, drawn by the Mercantile Trust company to the order of Evelyn Florence Nesbit, were presented. Two were for $20 each and three for $50. Mr. Delmas allowed twelve checks endorsed by Evelyn Nesbit and her mother to go into the evidence. Mrs. Thaw testified the checks represented money furnished by White.

Mrs. Thaw said she had received letters from White, fourteen which she had given to Thaw in Paris. They are now in the possession of Hartridge. Mr. Jerome spent more than an hour on this subject. Mrs. Thaw fenced with the district attorney quite skillfully at times, keeping her wits well about her. Mrs. Thaw denied in a positive manner that she had ever posed in the nude or had had a cast made of her nude figure. Jerome asked her about her relations

GENERAL BRAGG EIGHTY TODAY; KEPT OPEN HOUSE

Leader Of Famous "Iron Brigade" Celebrated Anniversary At His Home In Fond du Lac.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE]

Fond du Lac, Wis., Feb. 20.—The townsmen of Gen. Edward S. Bragg paid him splendid tribute today on the occasion of his 80th birthday. The famous leader of the "Iron Brigade" was obliged to keep open house throughout the day to receive the scores of friends who called to offer their congratulations in person. In addition there came to the "Little General" a veritable flood of good wishes from old friends and admirers throughout the country.

Despite his four-score years General Bragg is still active and full of energy and continues to take a lively interest in all public questions of the day. Since returning last summer from his post as consul at Hongkong in time to take part in the battle, it was the only great battle of the "Iron Brigade" except the closing contests ending at Appomattox in which he did not lead his regiment.

Though a lifelong democrat, a leader in his party, a party leader in congress and in the state senate, a candidate for attorney-general, twice the nominee for United States senator, General Bragg declined to accept the Chicago platform and candidate, and made many telling speeches for Palmer and Buckner, the gold democratic candidates for president and vice-president, and in 1890 he was an earnest supporter of President McKinley. He began his military career as a captain of volunteers soon after President Lincoln's call for soldiers in the spring of 1861. His regiment, the Sixth Wisconsin, left for Washington

Distinguished as have been his services in congress, in the state legislature, as a diplomat, as a lawyer, and an orator, it is to his gallant leadership of the famous "Iron Brigade" that General Bragg chiefly owes his fame.

The latter appointed General Bragg consul-general to Hayava, from which post he was later transferred to Hongkong.

Why Vinol Is Better Than Any Other Remedy to Restore

Health and Strength

Because Vinol is a real Cod Liver Preparation and does not contain a single disagreeable or harmful ingredient and is not a secret formula.

Because Vinol contains all the medicinal elements—the soothing, healing, strengthening and flesh-creative properties of Cod Liver Oil—but without oil or grease.

Because everything in Vinol—except the tonic iron and a fine oil wine—is actually extracted from fresh cod's livers and their oil.

Because Vinol is deliciously palatable and agreeable under all conditions. Everybody likes it.

Because Vinol tones up the system, strengthens every organ, nerve, muscle and fibre of the whole body and thus overcomes weakness by thoroughly eradicating the cause of disease.

That's Why Vinol is altogether different and better than any other remedy for Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, and all Throat, Lung and Wasting Diseases.

That's Why Vinol Restores Health and Strength to Delicate Children, Feeble Old People, Weak and Sickly Persons, Nursing Mothers, and Convalescents.

Frances is only four years old, and her hair hangs with 12 inches of the floor. The extraordinary strengthening qualities of Danderine has grown for this little girl the most admirable head of hair ever possessed by a child of her age in the world. The other two ladies whose photographs are shown here are certainly delighted with the results they are getting. Neither of them having hair that would reach to their waists before beginning the use of Danderine.

WISCONSIN WEATHER FORECAST

Partly cloudy and colder tonight with snow in eastern portion, Thursday generally fair.

OUR POSTAL SERVICE

The growth of the postal service of the United States is so rapid and the necessity for prompt delivery of mail matter is so imperative that methods formerly adopted to prevent errors and delays have now in their operation defeated the very purpose for which they were devised.

This is the principal theme of the annual report of First Assistant Postmaster General Frank H. Hitchcock.

For instance, some ten or fifteen years ago it was ordered by the postmaster general that all letters should be stamped on the back with the day and hour of receipt. This stamp, in connection with the postmark on the face of the letter, it was thought would check errors and delays in the handling of the mail. Now the back stamping has been found by experience to cause serious delay in the delivery of the mail and it has been abolished at New York and several other large cities, and it is proposed to do away with it entirely, says the Wall Street Journal.

The postal service, like the internal commerce of the United States, "will not stand still long enough to be counted." Hence much of the system of records, in postoffices established years ago is now out of date, retards delivery of mail, has been abandoned by progressive postoffices and is to be abandoned by all.

The evils which can be cured, by order of the postmaster general, will be attended to, but there are some anachronisms which are founded upon law. Among them is the practice of holding undelivered matter bearing a return address for thirty days, unless a time limit for the return is given. The law should be amended so as to make the time of return subject to the direction of the postmaster general.

The postoffice department has established an automobile collection service in Baltimore, which has given excellent results, and the department is planning for a similar collection service in other places. It is to be hoped that in the course of time automobiles may displace the horse carts used for collecting mail in New York, and in addition may make possible speedier interchange of mails between the various stations and sub-stations of the New York city post office.

HYPNOTIZING THE BUYER

In the eyes of the Roman law the buyer was warned to beware of the seller. Now comes the modern salesman along and says that in order to be a good seller you must be a good hypnotist. Hypnotism, on his theory, is the secret of successful selling.

There is a quality of personal contact in this view of things which may work well for a while, but there is an old fashioned notion that the best seller is the one who satisfies rather than hypnotizes the customer. In other words, the thing is not so much to eke the money out of the buyer's pocket, by assaulting and subduing his mentality, as it is to provide the commodity which fits into the purchaser's satisfaction. Schools of salesmanship based on the hypnotic principle are rather to be classed with the gold brick industry, or what that the newspaper's outfit who goes to and fro on the earth deceiving and do cooing. A satisfied customer is a far better asset than a deceived one, in whom the salesman has taken a moral advantage by overriding the purchaser's real desire.

UNIFORMITY OF STATE LAWS

There is a good thought behind the bill introduced into the state assembly by Mr. Merritt of St. Lawrence county, providing for an interstate conference to consider the enactment of uniform laws. As has been more than once explained the growing concentration of power in the federal government is due to the failure of the states adequately to protect the interests of the people. The diversity of state legislation so that there is one law in New York and another in Nebraska and still another in Texas, and so on, has been responsible for many abuses in regard to corporations, insurance, divorce, labor and other subjects. Uniformity of state law is therefore to be greatly desired. It is imperative if there is not to be a further decline of state power. Perhaps an interstate convention such as Mr. Merritt proposes would serve in a measure to bring about that uniformity.

This is the era of the young man. See them rush into the limelight of publicity seeking office. No matter what the office is or the responsibility, the young man of today feels himself equipped to serve the public—for a consideration.

Is it possible that the aldermen want those stars so that they can arrest any constituent who does not like their methods of doing the city's business, say for instance voting against the interurban franchise.

Why would it not be a good thing to have the aldermen have a special uniform as well as a star? Something suggestive of the office? Suggestions on this score might be left with the city clerk.

The absence of the oldtime objectionable nickel-in-the-slot machine that paid money to the winners is suggestive of the uprise in the morals of the community.

Mrs. Harry Thaw has told enough disgusting, revolting things that happen to young girls in the great city, to make every mother shudder for her daughter's future.

While Chicago is running wide open just before election Janesville appears to be drawing the lines the other way. By the way, Janesville is not such an immoral town after all.

The official who drinks and plays cards for money and will not tolerate such actions in subordinates is a fair example of a swollen noodle. All puff.

Now comes the crank who would kill Jerome and the court if Thaw is convicted.

PRESS COMMENT.

Commodity Not Appreciated. Here Exchange: The London Globe refers to Whitelaw Reid's "olympian condescension." He will do well to drop when he returns to this country.

Marie's Impelling Force Milwaukee Sentinel: "I write," says Marie Corelli, "because I am impelled by a force that I can not resist." Needs the money?—or, merely "scribbler's itch"?

Even Humble Peeps Not Wasted Fond du Lac Bulletin: In the economy of nature nothing is lost. While the inside of a banana refreshes one man—the peel may be instrumental in breaking another man's neck.

A Moses in Small Business El Paso Herald: District Attorney Jerome still persists in frittering away his good democratic talents on little murder trials when his party is still yearning for a Moses.

The Reign of Millions Exchange: Chancellor Day declares that this is the age when "millions and brains will rule." It is pretty generally admitted that Syracuse university is making a very successful bid for the first half of it.

Newest Fad in Newport Bryan's Commoner: The latest Newport fad is to clip the corners from two-dollar bills, burn them, and sprinkle the ashes in the toe of the stockings. Out this way the two-dollar bills are short enough without clipping the corners.

Next! Exchange: As soon as the Thaw trial is completed Mrs. Bradley, who killed Senator Brown, will step into the limelight at Washington and tell a story that a lot of people will think is not fit for publication.

Disconcerting to Bryan Chicago Chronicle: Mr. Bryan will be disconcerted to learn that the Jefferson club of Milwaukee has declared in favor of Senator La Follette for the presidency. Mr. Bryan himself is an open and avowed admirer of the Wisconsin statesman, but his admiration hardly extends so far as that of the Jefferson club.

The World's Greatest Library Chambers' Journal: The library at the British museum, which now contains between 3,000,000 and 4,000,000 volumes, is without exception the largest in the world, the only one which approaches it in size being the Bibliothèque Nationale, Paris, and it is interesting to note that for the accommodation of this immense number of books upward of forty-three miles of shelves are required.

Meager Wages of Christopher Oshkosh Northwestern: Talking about governmental salaries, and especially those for scientific men, the Washington Herald recalls the pertinent fact that Columbus' discovered America on a salary of $320 per year and wasn't a whole year about it, either. But this must have been some of the cheap European labor we hear so much about. Columbus didn't have a union card, either.

Still, Albert Deserved It Fond du Lac Commonwealth: Albert Dorsey, a Janesville man, has just been sentenced to a year in the state's prison for stealing thirty cents worth of doughnuts. Bunker Stensland stole a quarter of a million, wrecked scores of homes, drove several men to suicide and got off with ten years. In the light of facts, such as these, it is small wonder that there should be "feelings of unrest" and even a suspicion that justice is not always meted out in an even handed manner.

Not Wanted—Even as Visitor Chicago Chronicle: It is with the most poignant regret that the Chronicle must say a word in praise of the yellow newspapers, but when the Hearst sheet decides for Dunne and in that way knocks out Harrison it performs a public service which deserves recognition. Dunne is bad enough, but Carter H. Harrison who can stand? Harrison says he is not seeking the mayoralty for his own satisfaction but only to please the people. Well, then, let him hurry back to Los Angeles, for there is nobody here who wishes to have him either as a mayor or as an inhabitant.

Buying Gowns and Husbands' Abroad Portland Oregonian: M. Worth, the Paris dressmaker, is indignant because Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish has declared that American dressmakers are the first in the world. In amazement M. Worth inquires why, if such be the case, "American women flock to Paris and London to buy their gowns." The answer is not an easy one, but it does not necessarily imply an admission that they can not secure equally rich, tasty and handsome gowns at home. There is a possibility that some of our Americans whose ancestors wore gingham and calico now buy their gowns in Paris for the same reason that they buy husbands and secure foreign accents in Europe.

Retrospection of the Stung

Sheboygan Journal: The ways of the promoters of fake companies are devious. In order to get the name of the then State Treasurer James O. Davidson before the public as one of its promoters, the now bankrupt Mexican Plantation company gave him two shares of stock. Doubtless the sight of Governor Davidson's name on the list of promoters led a good many persons to think the concern was all right. Now the company is broke and the stockholders are out of pocket.

RETURN TO CHILDHOOD'S HOME.

Almeron.

Returning to the old home place of early childhood years. And looking for some favored spot of boyhood's hopes and fears. Some hill or dale or rock or cave, some face I used to know, In memory of the old play grounds of fifty years ago.

Should shrink more into normal view as the years would come and go.

But again I see the sun rise above old Zion hill, The graveyard on the eastern slope with tombstones grim and chill; The Janesville church spires, to the west, where bells of all the creeds Ring out the destiny of souls—the penalty of deeds.

The old farm house has long since gone, the shade trees cut away, The barn and fence, and chicken house have gone into decay; The sled and swing, and skating pond and everything I knew Have simply vanished from the earth and disappeared from view.

The old school house has crumbled down; another in its place. No person there I ever knew, not one familiar face.

I turn away in sadness from those scenes of schoolboy days, To forget the tiresome studies and the restful childish plays.

The old time neighbors once I knew from Janesville to the hill; Not one is left to greet me now, their voices all are still.

While no one for a minute questions the governor's honesty, in accepting the stock, it certainly was a case of bad judgment and lays him open to criticism. It ought to be a warning to both public officials and to incisive investors.

WEIGHING OF LOCAL MAIRS BEGUN TODAY

Every Railway Messenger to be accompanied by Weightmaster on His Trips During Next Six Months.

Beginning today a weighmaster accompanies every railway mail clerk running out of Janesville. He is engaged in weighing the mails to ascertain the average revenues that should be received by the railway companies. Though the mails in and out of Janesville are heavier than four years ago the railway pay may not be increased for the government is seriously contemplating cutting down the amount per pound. According to newspaper dispatches from Washington the work will last for three months, but as blanks for six months' reports have been received at the local office it is expected that the usual term of weighing may be doubled.

ASPHYXIATED AT THE PARK HOTEL

BARABOO MAN FOUND DEAD IN BED THIS MORNING.

Escaping Gas Was First Noticed About 9:30 and Source Was Discovered a Half-Hour Later.

John M. Feltz of Baraboo, a smooth-shaven, dark complexioned man about six feet tall and 30 years of age, known to have formerly been employed as a brakeman on the North Western road and to have made his home in Beloit, was found dead in his bed at the Park hotel under peculiar circumstances, this morning. It was near 12 o'clock last evening when he applied for and was given a room on the second floor. About half-past nine o'clock this morning employees of the hotel detected a strong odor of illuminating gas and an investigation located the source in the stranger's apartment. Repeated calls and knocks on the door brought no response. The key was still in the latch on the inside but the clerk succeeded in dislodging it and opening the barrier with a duplicate.

Had Been Dead Some Time.

The stranger lay in his bed as if sleeping, but it did not take long to determine that he was cold in death. Above him the gasjet was turned on full. The window curtains were up but the sash was down. His corduroy coat had been hung up and the trousers were neatly folded on a chair.

Dr. W. D. Merritt was called and after an examination stated that life had been extinct for some hours.

Leaves Widow in Baraboo.

In the pockets of the clothes a ticket from Baraboo to Beloit and $12.39 in cash were found. City Marshal Appley was acquainted with Feltz when he lived in Beloit and says that he has a wife and brother in Baraboo. The officers are inclined to believe that it was a case of accidental death, not suicide, though some of the circumstances, such as the fact that the gasjet in the room did not turn on and off easily, seemed to point to the latter theory.

Body Taken to Morgue.

The body was removed to Kimball's morgue and the city marshal tried to get into communication with the chief of police at Baraboo. He had not been able to do so at three o'clock.

Joseph Melville.

Funeral services over the remains of the late Joseph Melville were held from St. Mary's church at nine o'clock this morning. Rev. W. A. Goebel officiating. Interment was in Mount Olivet cemetery.

Miss Elizabeth Flaville.

All that is mortal of the late Miss Elizabeth Flaville was tenderly laid at rest in Oak Hill cemetery this morning. Funeral services were held from the home of the deceased's niece, Miss Kate Welch, at 177 Madison street, at ten o'clock and Rev. J. H. Tippett was the officiating clergyman. The pallbearers were Calvin Rose, Bey Jackson, Oscar Athan, Wallace Nash, Charles Eller and Charles Cleland.

Janesville Daily Gazette, Wednesday, February 20, 1867.—Dramatic—Lappin's Hall—Mills' company from Milwaukee with the eminent actress, Susan Denin, will be here to perform on Saturday. Miss Denin is a lady of high artistic standing, and will delight all who may witness her great embodiment of character. She will be well supported.

Another Incendiary Attempt.—We learn that Mr. Norris, of the Norris House, yesterday morning found a lot of combustible material piled against his barn, with the evident intention of burning the structure at a favorable moment. The evil spirit seems to have taken fast hold of certain persons in this town, actuating them to burn the place.

Stealing Chickens.—Night before last our friend Judge Lynch lost a large number of his chickens, and the next morning he set to work to ferret out the thieves. It seems that they cut off the heads of the fowls and were traced by the blood to the engine house of fire company No. 3. One examination before Justice Hudson it appeared to develop that a stranger stole the fowls and carried them to the engine house to divert suspicion from the right channel.

The Lecture Next Tuesday Evening—America's greatest living orator, Wendell Phillips, will appear before a Janesville audience next Tuesday evening for the first time. Hundred Dollars Taken in at Two Nights' Entertainment in Presbyterian Church.

Successful in every way was the two nights' Japanese entertainment given at the Presbyterian church. Monday evening a good-sized audience attended the illustrated lectures delivered by Mr. and Mrs. Suel Miyamori, of Chicago university. Last evening a Japanese wedding ceremony was performed under the direction of Mrs. Miyamori. The audience filled up the church proper and a portion of the Sunday school room which was thrown open. The gross receipts of the two programs and the tea party which followed the marriage totaled a hundred dollars. The entertainments were given by the Christian Endeavor society, and a portion of the proceeds will go toward the support of the missionary which the church has agreed to keep in a foreign field.

The wedding proved a pleasing spectacle, the players being carefully and correctly costumed, and presenting their lines in an almost faultless manner. The cast of characters follows: bride, Miss Louise Mac' Bennett; groom, Bruce Kline; bridesmaids, the Misses Edna Wright, Loretta Ashley, Laura Clark and Katherine Blunk; parents of the bride, Miss Mabel Rustad and Harry Loudon; parents of the groom, Miss Fannie McCulloch and "Orr" Laughlin; go-between, Edwin Mead; be-between-woman, Miss Jessie Loudon; wine bearers, Harold Laughlin and Miss Marjory Bennett.

BLOOD POISON CURE YOURSELF AT HOME

Most persons who are afflicted with Contagious Blood-Poison hesitate to go to a physician for several reasons. In the first place the expense is heavy, and they know that the inevitable treatment will be mercury and potash, strong minerals that act with disastrous effects on the delicate parts of the system, and which do not, after all, really cure the disease. What they want is a safe, reliable treatment that can be taken at home and a perfect cure made of this loathsome disorder without unnecessary exposure or danger. Such a remedy is S. S. S. it is the only medicine that goes down to the very bottom of the trouble and drives out the last trace of the poison so that there are never any signs of its return. It does not contain a particle of mineral in any form, and after removing the disease from the circulation builds up every part of the system by its fine vegetable tonic properties.

S. S. S. attacks the trouble at its head and not only permanently cures the disease, but purifies the blood that future offspring is insured against infection. S. S. S. may be taken in the privacy of your home and a perfect cure made of this hateful and loathsome trouble. For the assistance of those who are curing themselves with S. S. S.

we have prepared a special book on Contagious Blood-Poison which contains instructions of great value to all blood poison sufferers. We will be glad to send a copy of this book free, and if additional instructions or advice is wanted, our physicians will furnish it without charge.

SPREADING RAIL CAUSED WRECK

Testimony of New York Central Official at the Inquest.

New York, Feb. 20.—The fact that

A Woman's Health

Is a heritage too sacred to be experimented with. For her peculiar and delicate ailments only medicines of known composition and which contain no alcohol, narcotics, or other harmful or habit-forming drugs should be employed. The one medicine which fulfills all these requirements is Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription—a remedy with a record of over forty years of cures to recommend it; a remedy, the makers of which print its formula on every bottle-wrapper and attest its completeness and correctness under oath; a remedy devised and adapted to woman's delicate constitution by an educated physician—an experienced specialist in woman's diseases; a remedy, every ingredient of which has received the written endorsement of the most eminent medical writers of all the several schools of practice for the cure of woman's peculiar diseases; a remedy which has more bona fide cures to its credit than any other sold by druggists for woman's special requirements. It is not given away in the form of "trial bottles" to be experimented with, but is sold at a fair price by all dealers in medicines.

Delicate, weak, nervous women should especially shun the use of alcoholic medicines which, from their stimulating and exhilarating effects may seem, for a time, to do good, but which from the inevitable effects of the alcohol in shrinking up the red corpuscles of the blood are sure to do great and lasting harm in the long run. Besides they beget a craving for stimulants which is most deplorable.

Only invigorating and nerve-strengthening effects can follow the use of this famous medicine for women. It can not possibly do harm in any state or condition of the system. It has been carefully adapted to woman's needs by an experienced physician—a specialist in their diseases. It makes weak women strong and sick women well.

If a woman has bearing down, or dragging pains, low down in the abdomen, or backache, frequent headaches, dizzy or fainting spells, is nervous and easily startled, has gnawing feeling in stomach; sees imaginary floating specks, or spots before her eyes, has melancholia, or "blues," or a weakening disagreeable drain from pelvic organs, she can't make no mistake by resorting to the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It will invigorate and tone up the whole system and especially the pelvic organs.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a scientific medicine, carefully devised by an experienced and skillful physician, and adapted to woman's delicate system. It is made of native American medicinal roots and is perfectly harmless in its effects in any condition of the female system.

As a powerful invigorating tonic, "Favorite Prescription" imparts strength to the whole system and to the organs distinctly feminine in particular. For over-worked, "worn-out," run-down, debilitated teachers, milliners, dressmakers, seamstresses, "shop-girls," house-keepers, nursing mothers, and

The situation is inspiring. I grow interested. I'm almost persuaded to linger."

A Triple Alliance.

Larry refused to share my quarters and chose a room for himself, which Bates fitted up out of the house stores. I did not know what Bates might surprise about Larry, but he accepted my friend in good part, as a guest who would remain indefinitely. He seemed to interest Larry, whose eyes followed the man inquiringly.

He took a step toward me; the table was between us; and he drew quite near but stood clear of it, erect until there was something soldierly, commanding in his tall figure.

"I suppose, sir," he began brokenly, "that I can hardly persuade you that I meant no wrong on that occasion."

"I suppose, sir," he began brokenly, "that I can hardly persuade you that I meant no wrong on that occasion."

"You certainly can, not—and it's safier for you not to try. But I'm willing to let all that go as a reward for your work last night. Make your choice now; stay here and stop your spying or clear out within an hour."

He took a step toward me; the table was between us; and he drew quite near but stood clear of it, erect until there was something soldierly, commanding in his tall figure.
